5	Is there enough room for most of these things if we plan it carefully?	Jun 28, 2009 4:39 PM
6	how will maintenance be handled? Don't want to return to the Jungle it was.	Jun 28, 2009 5:21 PM
7	Not important to me - I like the natural buffer..something small, if anything.	Jun 28, 2009 7:00 PM
8	Additional tennis court? Not sure if that is feasible on that lot.	Jun 28, 2009 7:37 PM

11	I'll support what the majority wants to do with this area. I'm thinking that the kids really don't have a play area and I see them along the Plantation Lane fence playing football, etc. Perhaps the back lot area could be multi-purpose for different activities that all could enjoy. Not sure it is large enough, but perhaps that can be investigated.	Jun 29, 2009 2:52 PM
12	Kill the kudzu!!!!	Jun 29, 2009 4:35 PM
13	Basketball half court	Jun 29, 2009 6:23 PM
14	plant native plants/butterfly garden; I think the firepit could be a potential fire hazard - no way to control unauthorized or unsupervised use	Jun 30, 2009 1:14 PM
15	Access not good for play area, tried and failed	Jul 2, 2009 2:21 AM
16	A picnic area/playground should be by the pool, next to the clubhouse. Community garden would not cost any money and participants would do all the upkeep. Sand volleyball would be high maintenance.	Jul 3, 2009 4:59 PM
17	Basketball court (half or third-court)	Jul 3, 2009 5:55 PM
18	Use the money to open the pool earlier in the year, keep it open longer in the year and keep pool open longer in the evenings.	Jul 3, 2009 6:00 PM
19	Community garden will work for a couple of months and then everyone will slack off and it will get overgrown or left to the pool board to take care of.	Jul 4, 2009 11:33 AM
20	Move grilling area to back with grill deck and picnic area. storage ahead for extra pool equip if not room in poolhouse	Jul 6, 2009 2:00 AM
21	I don't necessarily want to see the back lots redeveloped but would like to see money spent to pay someone to remove / control the invasive plants (kudzu, privet)	Jul 6, 2009 12:15 PM
